

NDIA Airline Engineering and Operations Building

Description:

This Design and Build project for the New Doha International Airport, was one of the first building projects to be awarded by the Bechtel on the NDIA project.

Scope of Work:

- Design and build of 6,200 m² airline engineering offices (AEO) and design of 13,500 m² Airline Operations Building (AOF).
- AEO 6,200 m² concrete framed engineering offices at new airport site
- AOF 13,500 m² concrete framed building with structural glazed façade and continuous interlocking roof system
- AEO large atrium including glazed architectural lift and shaft.
- AOF Mini Terminal for Airline Staff including baggage handling operations
- AOF integral restaurants and café bars
- AOF flight operation command centre

Key Facts

Client	New Doha International Airport
Consultant	Overseas Bechtel Incorporated
Start Date	July 2006
Completion Date	September 2009
Project Value	QR 170 Million

